Doug,

Here is a synopsis of a couple recent events that I found disturbing.
I am sending this information to you, per discussion with Greg Hamilton. Please feel free to forward to your attorney.

[redacted] today.
The house on Iron Mountain Blvd. – you arrived at 9 a.m., I came in a separate car about 9:30 a.m., you left about 9:45, I stayed on to look some more and talk with the builder.
I spent some time walking around outside and across the street with our realtor Martha Harrell.
After [redacted] left, I was almost struck while loading my dog into my car.
This occurred about 10:30-10:45 a.m.
The car was a large bronze SUV with a [redacted] on the back. A [redacted] was driving.
[redacted] was driving fast and came very close to me. I was quite shaken.

I did not learn until later that it was [redacted] and [redacted] car (I was under the impression [redacted] had [redacted] car)

[redacted] bout five minutes after the car incident I received an anonymous call on my cell phone from a [redacted] asking me questions about "my upcoming move." It was an odd call, odd questions, so I hung up.

Martha our Realtor later called me to tell me that the builder – [redacted] (not sure his last name) with [redacted] got a voice mail from [redacted] (which he said he has saved in case you want to hear it– you'll have to ask him for a copy) saying [redacted] saw you "snooping" around one of his homes for sale. He was pretty shaken up and called Martha to let her know.

[redacted] at about 7:30 p.m. I received an anonymous call on my work cell phone from a [redacted] [redacted] There were a lot of obscenities. [redacted] hung up before I could say anything.
